Re: Notice of Ex Parte Communication - In the Matter of Aerialink Telecom LLC - Application for Consent to Transfer Control of a Company Holding Blanket Domestic Section 214 Authority Pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, WC Docket No. 11-101 ("Application")

Dear Ms. Dortch:

This will provide supplemental information and further clarification about Aerialink Telecom LLC ("Aerialink"), and the parties to the proposed transaction, as requested by Commission Staff.

Aerialink is a competitive local exchange carrier that provides domestic, competitive local and interstate voice and data services to customers in Michigan. Aerialink has no other telecommunications carrier affiliates other than those discussed in the Application (see n. 1).

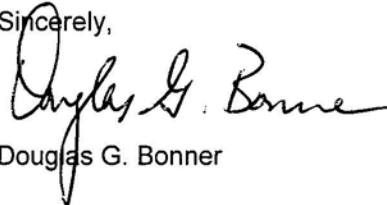

The following sentence should replace the second to last sentence on page 3 of the Application:

"Following the proposed Transaction, CRT will be 100% owned by Aerialink Fiber Communications Inc. ("Aerialink Fiber Corp."), a Delaware corporation; Aerialink Fiber Corp. will in turn be 100% owned by Aerialink Fiber Communications LLC ("Aerialink Fiber LLC"), a Delaware limited liability company." (Changes or additions to the original text are in bold).

Spire Capital Partners II, L.P. ("Spire") does not own any other interests in a telecommunications carrier. Spire is a limited partnership that is owned by a number of general partners and limited partners, and is not owned by any other single corporate entity or partnership. The Managing Members/General Partners of Spire are: Andrew J. Armstrong, Jr., Bruce M. Hernandez, Sean C. White, and Richard H. Patterson. No foreign carrier has an ownership interest in Spire.

Pursuant to Section 1.1206(b) of the Commission's rules, this letter is being filed electronically in the above-referenced proceeding.

Sincerely,

Douglas G. Bonner

Counsel to Arialink Fiber Communications LLC
